Ethical Trading

Jenier has always been devoted to obtaining tea, tea wares and packaging products with a solid ethical and sustainable footprint. We source products from around the world, ensuring our supply chains are robust, so that we can always track products back to their original garden, estate or manufacturing facilities.

Building up our supply chain and developing mutually beneficial relationships has taken years with much dialogue and, wherever possible, site visits. Our commitment continues today. We work with leading industry partners and source teas through the Ethical Tea Partnership members, who continue to work closely with tea companies and the local communities to achieve a thriving, socially just and environmentally sustainable tea sector worldwide.
